

THE ATLANTA OPERA

2022-23 SEASON

BREATHTAKING | SEDUCTIVE | ADVENTUROUS | LEGENDARY

Das Rheingold production rendering: Erhard Rom

MADAMA BUTTERFLY

GIACOMO PUCCINI | NOV 5-13, 2022

Yasko Sato Gianluca Terranova Nina Yoshida Nelsen Julius Ahn Allen Michael Jones Timothy Myers Tomer Zvulun

Cultures collide when an American naval officer stationed in Nagasaki decides to take a Japanese wife. Cio-Cio-San—fifteen years old and in love—dreams of her new life with the handsome young officer. Renouncing her culture and her family to become a proper American wife, she settles into his home overlooking Nagasaki Harbor and waits for his ship to return. Featuring Yasko Sato as Cio-Cio-San and Gianluca Terranova as Pinkerton singing one of the most exquisitely beautiful works in the repertoire. Nina Yoshida Nelsen, Julius Ahn, and Allen Michael Jones also join the cast and The Atlanta Opera Orchestra, led by Timothy Myers. Tomer Zvulun directs.

Sung in Italian with English Supertitles

Presented in partnership with The Japan American Society of Georgia

DON GIOVANNI

WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART | JAN 21-29, 2023

Kristine McIntyre Arthur Fagen

The murderous Don Giovanni deceives women with impunity, leaving destruction in his wake. This Don Juan is not just a rakish cad but someone much more sinister. Mozart and Da Ponte's masterwork explores vengeance and unsatiable desire. Glamour, grit, and the glow of neon infuse this film noir production in which Kristine McIntyre directs the action on the stage and Atlanta Opera Music Director, Arthur Fagen, leads The Atlanta Opera Orchestra.

Sung in Italian with English Supertitles

CANDIDE

LEONARD BERNSTEIN | MAR 4-12, 2023

Deanna Breiwick Jack Swanson James Lowe Alison Moritz

Leonard Bernstein's best-known operetta brings levity to spring in Atlanta. The innocent Candide discovers that human beings aren't all they are cracked up to be and ultimately focuses on building his own life on his own terms. Featuring modern classics "Glitter and Be Gay," "Make our Garden Grow," and a rip-roaring Overture for the ages, Candide makes its company debut in Atlanta. Deanna Breiwick and Jack Swanson star. James Lowe conducts and Alison Moritz will direct.

Sung in English with English Supertitles

DAS RHEINGOLD

RICHARD WAGNER | APR 29-MAY 7, 2023

Greer Grimsley Richard Cox Zachary Nelson Kristinn Sigmundsson Adam Diegel Patrick Summers Tomer Zvulun

Desire for a coveted ring begins a mammoth adventure to Valhalla. Gods, dwarves, giants, river nymphs, and dragons scheme and dream of power in Das Rheingold, the influential masterpiece by Richard Wagner that echoes in our popular culture today. Never before presented in the southeast, this Rheingold features great American voices in an all-new production from Tomer Zvulun and the creative team that created Salome in February 2020. This is history in the making at The Atlanta Opera. Unmissable. Featuring Greer Grimsley as Wotan and Kristinn Sigmundsson as Fasolt. Patrick Summers conducts.

Sung in German with English Supertitles